TO: First-year MBA Students
FROM: MBA Office
DATE: March 08, 2008

SUBJECT: Marriott School Student Software Agreement

All Marriott School students have access to BYU student computer labs. MBA students also have access to certain software, documents, and other materials licensed for student use through BYU. All MBA students must sign and submit the following form prior to beginning classes.

I recognize that the computer software, documents, and other materials supplied during my studies in the MBA Program are subject to proprietary rights at BYU or other companies from which BYU has acquired the materials, and are protected both by civil laws (including the copyright law) and criminal laws. I understand and agree that these materials are supplied to me solely for the purpose of completing certain classes within the MBA Program, and that while such materials are in my possession, I will not make or allow anyone else to make copies of this material or take any action that is inconsistent with the proprietary rights.

I understand that BYU and any other company holding rights in these materials have the right, and fully intend, to pursue all legal measures against me if I violate these rights.

I understand that taking any software from any BYU computer lab constitutes theft and can be subject to legal action as well as dismissal from BYU.
