

JOINT JD/MAcc PROGRAM

Fall 2020

The JD/MAcc program involves two separate programs, JD (law) and MAcc, which are completed concurrently. A student must apply to each program separately, and a student must attend law school at Brigham Young University. Acceptance into one program does not guarantee admission into the other. Students are required to take the LSAT for law school and the GMAT for the MAcc (if the student hasn't completed the Jr. Core at BYU).

Once admitted, the student works with each program individually, although there will be an overlap of credits being taken:

MAcc:

- A maximum of 12 credit hours in the MAcc program are waived in recognition of classes taken in law school. These 12 credits include MSB 571 (ethics) and 9 credit hours of Marriott School Electives. NOTE: If you are planning on taking the CPA exam upon graduation, you must take MSB 571, and another class may be waived in its place.

Law School:

- The law school waives 12 hours of electives.

Therefore, between the MAcc and law programs, a student is able to combine a maximum of 24 hours.

The following diagram indicates the path students will take in order to complete the JD/MAcc program:

	1	2	3	4	5
Assumed Complete	F/W	F/W 2020-2021	F/W 2021-2022	F/W 2022-2023	F/W 2023-2024
GE Religion Acc 241	Jr. Core	100% MAcc	100% law school	Law school
