EMBA CAMP WILLIAMS COURSE PARTICIPANT
RELEASE FORM

As part of the EMBA Residency Week, new students will participate in the Leaders’ Reaction Course at Camp Williams, UT on Tuesday, August 12, 2014. The Camp Williams Leaders’ Course is a strong team-building experience that uses physical activities to teach teamwork. The course is based on team-building activities that, by their very nature, are intended to get students out of their “comfort zone” to challenge themselves and their team members. However, due to mild amount of physical risk students take in performing some of the activities of the course, students are not required to participate in the Leaders’ Course activities and may choose those activities in which they will participate. Students who choose not to be involved in the physically active portions of the course are strongly encouraged to watch other team members during these activities and to participate in what they can.

Students will be taken from the TNRB to the Camp Williams Course in BYU vans provided by the MBA program. If students opt to drive their personal cars, it is at their own risk. All students must complete the following release agreement form and submit it to the MBA Office in order to be allowed to participate in the Camp Williams Leaders’ Course. Contact the MBA Office if you have any questions or concerns about this.

ASSUMPTION OF RISK AND LIMITED RELEASE AGREEMENT

I, the undersigned, recognize the hazards and dangers inherent in the Camp Williams Leaders’ Course and the transportation there. I have been advised of these dangers and fully acknowledge the risk of injury or death inherent therein, whether by my own actions or others, or events beyond my control. I do hereby agree to assume, and do knowingly and voluntarily assume, full responsibility for all the risks surrounding my participation in the Camp Williams Leaders’ Course and any other activity undertaken. Furthermore, I hereby fully release the Department of Defense and Brigham Young University and all its officers, employees, and agents, without any limitation or qualification, as to any and all its claims, demands, and actions that might be made by me on account of any losses, expenses, or damages of any kind concerning property or personal injuries (physical or emotional) or death that may result, directly or indirectly, from my participation in the Camp Williams Leaders’ Course, unless any such damage or injury is primarily the direct result of a negligent act or omission by Brigham Young University or any of its officers, employees, or lawful agents and not caused in part by my own negligence.

- Students are urged to be sure they are in satisfactory physical condition to perform the course activities to be engaged in and to secure appropriate medical and personal injury and property damage insurance coverage prior to their arrival at the Camp Williams Leaders’ Course.
- Students understand that they are required to participate in the Camp Williams Leaders’ Course activities and may choose those activities in which they will participate.
